MESSRS. CHINNOCK and GALSWORTHY are directed to the Mortgagee to SELL by AUCTION, at the MART, on WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 4, at Twelve, TWO valuable LEASEHOLD CARCASSES of a private nursery house and dwelling-house with shop adjoining, being Nos 1 and 2 Ledbury road, Bayswater, substantially built and in a very forward state, estimated when finished to produce a rental of £90 per annum; held for almost nine years, at low ground-rents.—Particulars may be obtained of Messrs. Dean and Hayes, Auctioneers, Bedford-row; at the Mart; Royal Oak, Westbourne-grove; and of Messrs. Chinnock and Galsworthy, Auctioneers, 98, Regent-street.

TO BUILDING BUILDERS AND OTHERS.—Valuable Building Ground, near the Station, at North Woolwich.

MESSRS. BROMLEY and SONS will SELL by AUCTION, at the AUCTION MART, on WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 4, at Twelve, in six lots, SIX eligible PLOTS of valuable FREEHOLD BUILDING LAND, nearly adjoining the Terminus of the North Woolwich Railway, and adjacent to the New Victoria Docks.—Particulars may be had at the Pavilion Hotel, North Woolwich; Crown and Anchor, High-street, Woolwich; Crown Gate, Plaistow; Rose, Romford; and of the Auctioneers, 17, Commercial-road, and Ilford, Essex.

LEYTON, ESSEX.—Votes for the County.—Freehold Building Ground.

MR. W. H. DEAN will SELL by AUCTION, at the MART, on THURSDAY, AUGUST 5, at Twelve, in PLOTS of FREEHOLD BUILDING GROUND, eligibly situate from Lady Hall, situate abutting upon the Leyton-road, within a short distance from Leyton Church, and most eligible for the erection of genteel detached or semi detached houses. The views over Leyton, Grange Park, and the surrounding locality, are beautiful, and the neighbourhood is very select.—May be viewed, and particulars and conditions of sale, with lithographed plans, may be had at the Mart; of Messrs. Fry and Loxley, Solicitors, 64, Cheapside, City; and of the Auctioneer, Stratford, Essex.

WHITMORE HOUSE, HOXTON.—The valuable materials of the above ancient mansion and out-offices to be SOLD by AUCTION, on the PREMISES, by

MR. R. KING, on TUESDAY, JULY 27, 1852, and following day, at Twelve o'clock each day. The materials comprise excellent oak joists, wainscot and other flooring boards, sashes and frames, fifty panelled doors, 4,000 feet of partitions and wainscoting, ancient carved oak stair case, curiously carved cupboards and door frames, a small foot of parting Portland stone steps, 10,000 feet of rafters and joists, long oak timbers, iron fencing, steam boiler and pipes, a large quantity of plain tiles, paving-tiles, excellent marble chimney-pieces and hearths, stoves, pipes, ancient iron chest, fire-wood, useful iron-work, and an abundance of other materials too numerous to insert. To be viewed on Monday and mornings of sale, catalogues on the premises; and of the Auctioneer, Cambridge place, Kingsland-road. Entrance to the sale at the back of the premises to Downham road.

BARKING-ROAD, near Blackwall, and close to the intended new Victoria Docks.

MR. JOHN T. FISHER will SELL by AUCTION at the BELL and ANCHOR TAVERN, North Woolwich road, on THURSDAY, JULY 29, at One for Two, TWENTY-TWO PLOTS of FREEHOLD BUILDING GROUND, land tax redeemed, most eligibly situate, partly having frontages to the Barking Park-road, with a most commanding corner facing the North Woolwich-road, on which and the road to Halsville, in the best situation in all that locality, the remaining plots abut. The Barking-road Station on the Eastern Counties Line is contiguous, and several large factories and immense ship building yards are adjacent, from whence hundreds of well-paid artisans have to travel miles to obtain residences. Land is sold for the establishment of other large business concerns, and the continually increasing demand for houses renders this a most desirable and profitable investment.—Plans and particulars may be had in due time of W. Mynarch, Esq. 16, Parliament-street, Westminster; Blue Boar, Aldgate; King's Head, Stratford; Queen's Arms, Poplar; Crown and Cushion, Woolwich; at the place of sale; and of the Auctioneer, Plaistow, Essex.

WALWORTH-ROAD.—Highly important Building Sites.

W. and C. PUGH are honoured with instructions from the Board of Governors and Guardians of St. Mary, Newington, Surrey, to LET by PUBLIC AUCTION, in Twenty-four Lots, at the ELEPHANT and CASTLE, NEWINGTON, on WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 4, 1852, at Twelve o'clock, an unrivalled BUILDING SITE for business purposes, and a fine street for private residences, having a frontage of 1,000 feet in the Walworth-road, and comprising the large area now occupied by the workhouse and its grounds, being unquestionably the most attractive property of the kind that has for many years been submitted for public competition. The property has been lotted out to suit the tradesman building for occupation or the capitalist for investment, and will be surveyed by one of the first architects in the neighbourhood of the same. The whole of the valuable BUILDING MATERIALS of the WORKHOUSE will be SOLD by AUCTION, MONDAY, AUGUST 9, on the PREMISES.—May be viewed by cards, and detailed particulars and plans had of Messrs. Chester and Son, Solicitors, Church-row, Newington; of H. Jarvis, Esq. Architect, Trinity square; of Joseph Burgess, Esq. 3, Kennington-road, Walworth; and of Messrs. W. and C. Pugh, Auctioneers and Surveyors, 4, Blackman-street, Southwark.

WEYBRIDGE and WALTON.—Freehold Land and Cottage at the Weybridge entrance to Oatlands Park, half a mile from the station; admirably adapted for building.

MR. GROGAN will SELL by AUCTION, at the SHIP INN, WEYBRIDGE, on THURSDAY, AUGUST 19th, at Twelve o'clock, in small plots, 11 ACRES of rich LAND, with valuable road frontage (land-tax redeemed), forming a portion of Oatlands Park, most convenient to the station and the church. For its rich pasture, its commanding situation, and its vicinity to the Thames, Hampton Court, Claremont, Virginia Water, &c. it would be difficult to meet with a more admirable site for an hotel, or for villas, which are in great request in this healthy and esteemed neighbourhood, several having already been erected by the Hon. Locke King and others, and which are taken up at high rents as soon as completed. Also a short distance from the station, admirably adapted for villas. Also in lots, 17 Acres of beautifully timbered land (tithe free, and land-tax redeemed), nearly opposite to the temple, in Oatlands Park, having a valuable frontage to the drive and to a new road leading to and within a few minutes' walk of the Weston Station, admirably adapted for a villa or villas.—The land can be viewed on application to Joseph Bourne, Oatlands Park, and particulars may shortly be had at the cottage of Messrs. Lee and Nicholl, and Sutton, 15, Carey-street, Lincoln's-inn-fields; and of the Auctioneer, 68, Park-street, Grosvenor square.

OATLANDS HOUSE, WEYBRIDGE, nineteen miles from London: a Freehold Residence peculiarly desirable for a nobleman or gentleman; formerly belonging to the Duke of York.

MR. GROGAN will SELL by AUCTION, at GARRAWAY'S, on the 18th of AUGUST (unless previously disposed of), the above celebrated MANSION, finely situate on a terrace of table-land, commanding an extensive prospect of surpassing beauty, and within an agreeable distance of Windsor, Hampton Court, Claremont, &c. recently fitted up for a family, the house is now most convenient for a moderate-sized family, and throughout is in perfect repair: it has recently been tenanted by Lord Foley. The furniture may be taken at a valuation, and immediate possession may be had. There are hot, cold, and shower baths; ample stabling, &c.; orangery, kitchen-garden, hothouses, &c. The great beauty of the pleasure-grounds, the fine cedar trees of two centuries' growth, &c. are generally known. About thirty surrounding acres will be included in the sale, ensuring the perfect privacy of the house, &c.; and an option will be given of purchasing adjoining land, and also the grotto, upon which duchess were laid out by the Duke of Kensington. From the well-known beauty and salubrity of the spot, and the purity of the water, it would be admirably adapted for a first class hotel, or other establishment; and the contiguity of the Watson and Weybridge Railway Stations renders communication with London, and the Brighton, the Dover, the Southampton, and the Great Western Railways peculiarly convenient.—The mansion can be viewed only by a special order from the Auctioneer, 68, Park-street, Grosvenor square, of whom, and of Messrs. Loxley, Nicholl, and Sutton, 15, Carey-street, Lincoln's-inn, particulars may shortly be had.

SALES BY AUCTION.
